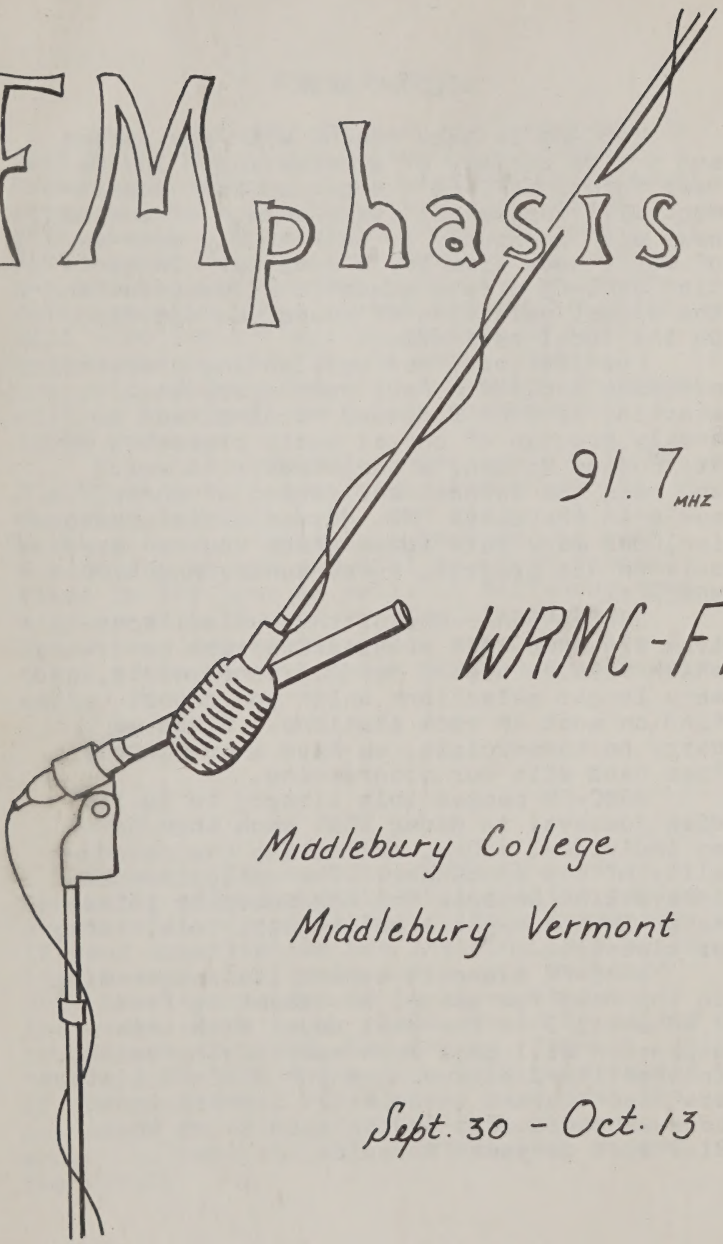
FMphasis



91.7 MHZ

WRMC-FM

Middlebury College

Middlebury Vermont

Sept. 30 - Oct. 13

WELCOME BACK

WRMC-FM is back again, with new voices and a wide variety of programming. In the near future WRMC-FM's expanded News Department will supplement its coverage of campus news with an hourly or half-hourly wrap-up of world news from the UPI wires. In addition WRMC-FM offers educational programs and the widest selection of music you can find on the local radio dial.

For instance, our outstanding classical programs include a four hour opera show, starting at 9 AM Saturday morning, and a weekly program of choral music presented by Mr. Eugene Norman, a Vergennes resident who owns the largest collection of choral music in the east. Mr. Norman's collection includes many rare items which you can hear only on his program, every Sunday night on WRMC-FM.

On the other end of the musical spectrum are WRMC-FM's progressive rock programs, which feature blues, "underground" music, and many longer selections which you cannot find on most AM rock stations. Since we carry no commercials, we have a completely free hand with our programming.

WRMC-FM passes this liberty on to its disk jockeys, in order that each show have an individual sound, reflecting the personality of the announcer. The music is more interesting because the announcer is interested in his music - be it jazz, folk, rock, or classical.

WRMC-FM plans to expand its programming in the next few weeks, broadcasting from 7 AM until 3 AM the next day. With this expansion will come much more of the varied, interesting programming which WRMC-FM listeners have learned to expect. So stay tuned, because there will be big changes at the 91.7 spot on your FM radio.

WRMC-FM NEWS

This year WRMC-FM news has added to its facilities the worldwide network of United Press International. In addition to national, international, and state news provided by this service, the expanded WRMC-FM news staff will enable on the scene coverage of campus and Addison County news events. Our up-to-date communications system and mobile units will give instant action reports of emergency news stories in the area. Special analysis, discussion, and interview programs will be broadcast to follow up important local news.

Regularly scheduled news casts will be 5 minutes before each hour throughout the day, beginning at 7:55, and ending at 11:55. Weather forecasts will be included in each 5 minute newscast and will be given several times in the hour as well. A half-hour news wrap-up at 8:30 each evening, featuring world news and sports, will round out the total coverage of the new WRMC-FM News Department.

CUE

As a public service, WRMC-FM carries a community calendar which will outline coming events of interest to the college community. If your organization has anything they would like broadcast, simply write on a postcard only the information to be aired in exactly the order to be read. This should be mailed to WRMC-FM, Box 800, Middlebury, Vermont, with "Cue" printed in the bottom left hand corner of the postcard. Please make sure that the postcards are legible. All announcements should be received at least one week before the event.

	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THU
7 - 9	Early Morning Show Peggy Ford	Early Morning Show J. Kerrigan	Early Morning Show D. Knowland	AVANT- Gerar de Gu
9 - 11	Morning Concert Wayne Swift	Morning Concert Sarah Pettit	Morning Concert S. Rickey	Mornir Conce Alan
2:30 - 4	Afternoon Concert Marilyn Park	Afternoon Concert Cyn Sidney	Afternoon Concert D. Haneline	Aftern Conce Sue Jo
4 - 6	Cabaret Gary Higginbottom	Cabaret Kevin Dunn	Cabaret Tim Peck	Cabare David Schoo
6 - 6:30	The London Echo NAEB The Olympic Games NAEB	Georgetown Forum NAEB	Special of the Week NAEB	What M Be Do NAEB
6:30 - 8:30	Symphony Hall G. Kaufman	Symphony Hall Baroque J. Bornstein	Symphony Hall Dan Eiben	Sympho Hall P. Pi
8:30 - 9	Spanish Show Xenia Urban	French Show Joan Kerrigan	German Show Bill Murphy	Frenc Nancy Treas
9 - 11	Rock Digger	Rock Trip Reeb	Rock Sandy Daignault	Rock Millyr Moore
11 - 1	Late Nite John Krasnow	Late Nite Jon Groetzinger	Round Midnight Rick Dostie	Late Gregg Humph

CHEDULE

DAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY
OPOS burg	Early Morning Show Nancy Horton	Early Morning Show Andy Wentink	Chapel 11 - 12
t rter	Art of the Keyboard B. Lonsdale	Opera 9 - 1 Dan Eiben	Library of Congress Lectures (NAEB) 12 - 1:30 on t ns	Afternoon Concert Dick Bittman	1 - 6 Sports (Rock when not in sports season)	1:30 - 3:30 Jazz Arnold McKinney
r	Cabaret Denny Shanahan		3:30 - 5:30 Folk
st e	BBC Science Magazine NAEB	6 - 9 Rock Will Boehne	5:30 - 7 Showboat Sharon Rickey
sbury	Symphony Hall J. Woodworth		7 - 10 Cantate Dominum Classical Choral Music Eugene Norman
how	Russian Show Russian Club
e	Rock Bill Taylor	Gamut 9 - 12:30 or The Inner Silence D. Knowland C. Irion	10 - 1 Late Nite Don Delano
	Soul Gene Oliver

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING

This fall WRMC-FM is offering an almost completely new series of National Association of Educational Broadcasters' programs. In the main, this new series reflects the basic problems and interests of the times: human rights, the ghetto, Black America, foreign policy,smoking, the Olympic Games, the role of the vast universities, the relationship between man and science, the city, China, and many others.

SPORTS

In fall sports this year, along with the Saturday afternoon Middlebury football games, WRMC-FM Sports will bring you a Saturday afternoon College Sports scores wrap-up, and a Sunday afternoon Professional Sports scores wrap-up. Sports scores will also be included in the evening news wrap-up each evening.

OPERA

This show, every Saturday from 9 AM to 1 PM and often later, will feature opera, well-known and otherwise, with the best of American and European artists and orchestras. The climax of the season will occur in November and December, with Wagner's complete "Ring of the Nibelungs" on four consecutive Saturdays, featuring Von Karajan's Controversial production of "Die Walkure." Commentary, lucid and otherwise, will be provided by Dan Eiben.

SPECIAL PROGRAMMING

10.3 - 7 AM - AVANT-PROPOS - An interview with Dr. Grant Harnest, head of the science department, previewing the new building.
6 PM - What Must Be Done - Ist part of a discussion on education featuring editors, authors, and school officials.

10.5 - 9 AM - Opera - Mozart, "Don Giovanni", Karl Bohm conducting (tentative)
Afternoon football vs WPI - homecoming

10.6 - 12 noon - Library of Congress Lectures features "The Writing and Reading of Fiction" discussed by James Dickey, Peter Taylor, and John Updike
7 PM - Cantate Dominum - The Joyful Bach

10.10 - 7 AM - AVANT-PROPOS - Featuring Mr. E. A. Osborne, manager of the Standard Register Co., Middlebury, in an interview discussing the function of the company in Middlebury
6 PM - Continuation of the discussion from 10.3

10.11 - Live broadcast of the dedication of the new fine arts building

10.12 - 9 AM - Opera - Carl Orff, "Oedipus Der Tyrann", Rafael Kubelik conducting (tentative)
Afternoon football vs Hamilton (away)

10.13 - Taped broadcast of the dedication of the fine arts building
7 PM - Cantate Dominum - The Mass

Other special events, previously unscheduled, such as a live broadcast of the opening of the new Proctor Gamut, may occur during this time.

WRMC-FM - PEOPLE RADIO ??

FMphasis has begun a new policy in mailing lists this fall. Due to increased circulation and enrollment of the college, anyone requesting mailed copies, including those who received then last spring, must send in his name and address along with $2.00 to cover mailing costs. Checks should be made out to Rhetorical Materials Company. Please send this information to the following address:

FMphasis
Box 800
Middlebury
Vermont
05753